Invocation/Introduction:

Sample 1

Bound by the natural laws unique to their own hearts we call upon the support of the love and care you family and friends have shown to bless Mark and Jen's union with the blessing of divine love. May this love continue to strengthen, protect and guide them as it has for so many years so that their life together may continue to nourish the blossoms that have filled the air with sweetness and beauty.

Sample 2

Bound by the natural laws unique to their own hearts we call upon the Spirit Of Life to bless Amy and Jason's union with the blessing of divine love. May this love forever strengthen, protect and guide them from this day forward so that their life together may nourish the blossoms that will one day fill the air with sweetness, beauty and remembrance of this hour.

Honor the Family

Rev T: John and Marcy have called upon us all to celebrate with them the sweetness they have found in loving one another. But there are those who passed on before us to whom they wish to acknowledge, for they have touched the hearts of John and Marcy. We light a candle for Grandpa Pete, Aunt Terry, and Mom Bea (Willene Costa)

With great love and respect we thank you for touching these beautiful and amazing people we are celebrating today. May the blessing you have bestowed upon us return many fold.

(Honor each parent with a flower or some other token of respect)

(Honor placing a flower on the ancestor's altar in the north)

Sample 2

Rev T: Jeff and Tammy have called upon us all to celebrate with them the homecoming and sweetness they have found in loving one another.

We take this time to honor those who are not able to join us but whose hearts are close by:

We also offer a rose for the family yet to come, may its sweet essence guide them home.

Sample 3

Rev T: Nick and Kate have called upon us all to celebrate with them the homecoming and sweetness they have found in loving one another.

We take this time to honor those who created the foundation for Nick and Kate's ability to love one another, their family.

We light a candle in gratitude for Pop, Vernon Cole; Don & Dorothy McGuire; and Viola Mom for their touching presence.

We light a candle for the family yet to come may its flame guide them home.

We offer a token of gratitude to the parents for the care and love provided to Kate and Nick throughout their lives (give Roses to Moms) May the blessing you have bestowed your now son-in-law and daughter-in-law and all of us return to you many fold.
