

An Intimate Ceremony

Reverend Tracy Bell, Officiant
Rochester NY

www.inspiredweddingceremonies.com

Component Samples

Recession:

Sample 1

Rev. T: On behalf of Mark and Jennifer and their family I would like to thank you for participating in this portion of the ceremony. Following the recession you are welcomed to join Mark and Jen for the receiving line at by the patio. You are now invited to join in the continued Celebration with Mark and Jennifer beginning with drinks and hordevores followed by dinner and toasting.

Many Blessings.

Sample 2

Rev. T: On behalf of Josh and Paula and their loved ones would like to thank you for participating in this portion of the ceremony.

Following the recession, at the couple's request there will not be a receiving line.

However, while our couple has their pictures taken, you are invited to enjoy cocktails located near the reception tent as Josh and Paula wish for you to relax and take in this beautiful place for the rest of the celebration. Enjoy!

Sample 3

Rev T: On behalf of Andrew and Becce and their loved ones I would like to thank you for participating in this portion of the ceremony. Following the procession, there will be no a receiving line. But instead you are invited to join The Gnages and Family for cocktails and horsedervs followed by dinner and dancing where they will greet each of you.

The immediate family is asked to follow bridal party so that pictures may be taken and Guest may enter the club through the side or main doors.

Again thank you and please stand as Andrew and Becce's make their first exit as husband and wife.